

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

1 Sir Charles Napler served in the Irish rebellion, in 1798; and in the insurrection, in 1803. Commanded the 10th throughout the campaign terminating with the battle of Corunna, when he was made prisoner after receiving five wounds, viz. leg broken by a musket-shot, sabre-cut on the head, in the back by a bayonet, ribs broken by a cannou-shot, and at veral severe contusions from the butt-end of a musket. Returned to the Peninsula the latter part of 1809, where he remained until 1811, and was present at the action of the Con (had two horses shot under him), battle of Bussen (shot through the face, also jaw broken and eye injured), battle of Fuentes d'Onor, second siege of Badajoz, and a great number of skirmishes. In 1813 he served in a floating expedition on the coast of the United States of North America; landed a great number of times at Crancy Island, and other places. Served also the campaign of 1815, and was present at the storming of Cambray. Commanded the force employed in Scinde, and on the 17th Feb. 1843, with only 2,800 British troops, he attacked and defeated, after a desperate action of three hours' duration, 22,000 of the enemy, strongly posted at Mecanes. Feb. Hydrabad surrendered to him ; and on the 24th March, with 5,000 men, he attacked and signally defeated 20,000 of the enemy, posted in a very strong and difficult position at Dubba near Hydrabad, thus completing the entire subjugation of Scinde. Early in 1845, with a force consisting of about 5000 men of all arms, he took the field against the mountain and desert tribes situated on the right bank of the Indus to the north of Shikarpore, and after an arduous campaign he effected the total destruction of these robber tribes. [Returned from the Mauritius, 25 Sept. 43.]

I Lord Gough served at the capture of the Cape of Good Hope, and the Dutch Fleet in Saldanha Bay, 1795. Served atterwards in the West Indies, including the attack on Parto Rico, the brigand war in St. Lucia, and capture of Surlnam. Proceeded to the Peninsula in 1809, and commanded the 87th at the battles of Talavera, Burrosu, Vittoria, and Nivelle, for which engagements he has received a cross. He also commanded the regiment at the defence of Cadiz and of Tarifa (slightly wounded in the head). At the battle of Talavera his horse was shot under him, and he himself was afterwards severely wounded in the side by a shell, -for his conduct in this action the Duke of Wellington subsequently recommended that his Lieut.-Colonelcy should be ante-duted to the date of his despatch, thus making him the first officer who ever received Brevet rank for services performed in the field at the head of a regiment. At Barrosa his regiment captured the Eagle of the 8th French Regiment; and at Vittoria they captured the Baton of Marshal Jourdan. At the Nivelle he was again severely wounded. Commanded the Land Force at Canton-for which he was made a GCB.—and during nearly the whole of the operations in China,—for which service he was created a Baronet. On the 29th Dec. 1843, with the right wing of the army of Gwalior, he defeated a Mahratta force at Maharajpore, and captured 56 guns, &c. In 1845 and 46 the Army under his personal command defeated the Seik Army at Moodkee, Perozeshah, and Sobraon, for which and previous services he was ruised to the Peerage.

2 Lieut.-Coionel Magenis served with the 7th Fusiliers in the Peninsula and at New Orleans.

He served off Boulogne, and also in the action under Lord Cochrane at Basque Roads, as senior officer of Marine Artillery, on board the Etna bomb vessel. In 1811 he proceeded with the marine battalion, evanuabled by the late Sir Richard Williams, to Portugal, and returned to England in 1812. In 1813 he obtained a company in the Glamorgan Militia, and having volunteered the same year into the 53rd regt., he landed in Spain, and proceeded to join the army at Toulouse.

In 1795 he was senior Staff Surgeon to the expedition for the capture of the Cape of Good Hope. In 1809 he served throughout the Walcheren campaign, in which he was appointed Inspector to the Forces in the Field, having the charge at the bombard-ment of Flushing, and in South Beveland. He served the campaigns of 1813 and 14 in Holland and Belgium as chief of the department. In 1815 he served the campaign of Waterloo as chief of the medical department of the Duke of Wellington's army; and he continued as medical chief of that army during the three years' occupation of France.

In 1808 he accompanied the army to Portugal as surgeon to the Duke of Wellington; served with it throughout the whole of the Peninsular war, without being absent from his duty for a single day, and was in every action and siege in which the Duke was present. In 1811 his name was inserted in General Orders as surgeon-in-chief to the army; this, as a temporary appointment, ceased with the war, in 1814; but when the Duke assumed the command of the army at Brussela in 1815, his Grace again put him in General Orders as Deputy Inspector of Hospitals and Surgeon-in-chief to the army, in which capacity he was present on the field of the battle of Waterloo.

On the 7th October, 1813, a General Order, of which the following is an abstract.

Whereas considerable inconvenience has arisen from the number of Medals which have been issued in commemoration of the brilliant and distinguished events in which the success of His Majesty's arms has received the Royal approbation, the Prince Regent has been please to command that the following Regulations shall be adopted in the grant and circulation such marks of distinction: viz.—

1st. That one Medal only shall be borne by each Officer recommended for such distinction.

2nd. That for the second and third events, which may be subsequently commemorated a like manner, each individual recommended to bear the distinction shall carry a gold Carrattached to the ribbon to which the Medal is suspended, and inscribed with the name of a Battle or Siege to which it relates.

3rd. That upon a claim being admitted to a fourth mark of distinction, a Cross shall borne by each officer, with the names of the four Battles or Sieges respectively inscribed thereupon; and to be worn in substitution of the distinctions previously granted to small individuals.

4th. Upon each occasion of a similar nature that may occur subsequently to the grant of a Cross, the Clasp shall again be issued to those who have a claim to the additional distinction, to be borne on the ribbon to which the Cross is suspended, in the same manner as described in No. 2 of these Regulations.

His Royal Highness was further pleased to command that the distribution of Medals or Badges for Military services of distinguished merit shall be regulated as follows: viz.—

1st. That no General or other Officer shall be considered entitled to receive them, unless be has been personally and particularly engaged upon those occasions of great importance and peculiar brilliancy, in commemoration of which such marks of distinction are to be bestowed.

2nd. That no Officer shall be considered a candidate for the Medal, or Badge, except upon the special selection and report of the Commander of the Forces upon the spot, as having merited the distinction by conspicuous services.

3rd. That the Commander of the Forces shall transmit to the Commander-in-Chief, Returns, signed by himself, specifying the names and ranks of those Officers whom he shall have selected as particularly deserving.

4th. The Commander of the Forces in making the selection will restrict his choice to the under-mentioned ranks: viz.—

General Officers.

Commanding Officers of Brigades.

Commanding Officers of Artillery, or Engineers.

Adjutant-General, and Quarter-Master-General.

Deputies of ditto, and ditto, having the rank of Field Officers.

Assistants, Adjutant and Quarter-Master-Generals, having the rank of Field-Officers, and being at the head of the Staff, with a detached Corps, or distinct division of the Army.

Military Secretary, having the rank of Field Officer.

Commanding Officers of Battalions, or Corps equivalent thereto; and Officers who may have succeeded to the actual command during the engagement, in consequence of the death or removal of the original Commanding Officer.

The Crosses, Medals, and Clasps, are to be worn by the General Officers, suspended by a Ribbon of the colour of the sash, with a blue edge, round the neck; and by the Commanding Officers of Battalions, or Corps equivalent thereto; and Officers who may have succeeded to the actual command during the engagement; the Chiefs of Military Departments, and their Deputies and Assistants (having the rank of Field Officers); and such other Officers as may be specially recommended, attached by a Ribbon of the same description to the button-hole of their uniform.

Those Badges which would have been conferred upon the Officers who have fallen at or died since the Battles and Sieges, shall, as a token of respect for their memories, be transmitted to their respective families.—Vide the London Gazette, 9th October, 1813.
